

Henning Fuchs

composer

Henning combines a wide variety of genres and cultural influences in his music. Throughout his career he has been working with award winning directors, choreographers and producers from all over the world.

Henning's solo albums feature internationally acclaimed musicians such as Bjork percussionist "the world's leading hang player" (Financial Times) Manu Delago, Icelandic solo violinist Elfa Rún Kristinsdóttir, Chinese erhu master Guo Gan and Lisa Lambe – "the finest singer and actor of her generation" (Irish Times).

Currently Henning is preparing the release of his third solo album COCOON, feat. Lisa Lambe, award-winning harpist Aisling Ennis and the renowned Castle String Quartet. COCOON was recorded at the famous Grouse Lodge Studios in Ireland and was mixed by Faithless producer Götz B. in London.

In 2002 Henning graduated from Sir Paul McCartney's Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts before he moved to Berlin where he performed with various bands, ensembles and orchestras as songwriter and composer. 2012 he received a diploma as a film music composer at the Filmuniversity Potsdam-Babelsberg "Konrad Wolf".

Meanwhile Henning had taken classes in scoring by Michael Giacchino, Patrick Doyle and Howard Shore. He also did an exchange term at the Royal College of Music London, developing an interest in contemporary classical composition styles.

2012-17 Henning assisted renowned composer Max Richter in Berlin, London and Oxfordshire and accompanied dance and film productions at the Royal Opera House, at Air Studios as well as Emil Berliner Studios.

Since he won a German-Russian composer contest in 2010 Henning's music has been performed by Orchestras and Ensembles in Moscow, Nizhny Novgorod and Ekaterinburg. 2020 he was nominated by Opus Klassik Germany „composer of the year“.
